Sharing Asian CU Experience with WAW Credit Union Board of Directors

With the invitation of WAW Credit Union, ACCU Chief Executive Officer, Ranjith Hettiarachchi shared with its Board the challenging work of ACCU in promoting and strengthening credit unions. The CEO shared the development issues faced by Asian credit unions in governance, professionalism, financial disciplines, standards, regulations, membership, youth and women involvement. Ranjith shared the credit union solutions ACCU is building to address the current and perceived challenges of credit unions. The sharing is a part of WAW Board's continuing education particularly aimed at widening the Boards' understanding of the worldwide credit union, its challenges and achievements.

Ranjith acknowledged the contribution of WAW Credit Union in supporting to build solutions for Asian credit unions. WAW Chair, Bill Field has been involved in developing the Credit Union Directors and CEOs Competency Course (CUDCC and CUCCC) and has been providing support to the Asian Development Education Workshop. WAW Credit Union is an active Supporter Member of ACCU.

Ranjith presenting a token of appreciation to General Manager Peter Challis in recognition of WAW Credit Union's support to Asian credit union movement.

ACCESS Orientation in CUCO

Thirty credit union Managers and leaders from Jakarta, Ende, Kalimantan, Bali, Lampung and North Sumatra Chapters attended the ACCESS orientation Workshop organized by ACCU and the Credit Union Central of Indonesia (CUCO) on August 19-21. The workshop explained in detail the standards of ACCESS and the process for accreditation. The workshop also agreed on the fee structure for accreditation in recognition of the huge amount of technical assistance from chapter and CUCO. Recognizing the value to professionalize and demonstrate the credit union difference, thirteen credit unions volunteered to undergo ACCESS branding. ACCU commits to provide technical assistance to CUCO Indonesia and the respective chapters to train the auditors.

Making Headway on the Cambodian Credit Union Promotion

FLIFLY, a prospective partner of ACCU in Phnom Penh, Cambodia prepares its staff to the big task of converting its Self-Help Groups (SHGs) to Community Based Financial Institutions (CBFIs). ACCU in collaboration with SEDCOC (Socio-Economic Development Organization in Cambodia) conducted training on Credit Union Organization and Management for the staff of FLIFLY on August 13-15. SEDOC, also a partner of ACCU has converted its SHGs to CBFIs. ACCU is currently supporting SEDOC to amalgamate more than 50 CBFIs to 20-25 CBFIs. During the visit on August 16, ACCU technical staff assessed SEDOC's achievements, prepared plan for future programs and provided technical advice.
